

Does Credit Card Travel Insurance Provide Enough Coverage?

Are you relying solely on your credit card's travel insurance policy? It's time to take a closer look and ensure you are protected. When comparing your credit card's insurance with a paid comprehensive policy, make an informed choice with these considerations.

- Where are you travelling?
- How long are you travelling for?
- What activities do you plan to do there?
- Your age and health
- How much your valuables are worth?

Questions you should ask:

- ✦ Does your credit card insurance provide instant payouts for medical issues overseas, delayed luggage or lost/stolen cash?
- ✦ Does your credit card insurance provide you with your own policy number and name on the certificate of currency that can be used in an emergency to provide to hospitals?
- ✦ Does your credit card policy have an Australian based 24/7 emergency call center?
- ✦ Do you know what the activation requirements are to start the credit card policy?
- ✦ Does your credit card insurance cover extras like Cruising or Winter Sports?
- ✦ Does your credit card policy cover you for Moped or Motorcycle Riding either as a passenger or a rider?
- ✦ Does your credit card insurance cover any Pre-existing Medical Conditions?
- ✦ Does your credit card insurance have age limitations?
- ✦ Does your credit card insurance cover only the primary cardholder or will it also cover travelling companions or family members?
- ✦ Does your credit card insurance provide evacuation and repatriation cover and if yes then how much?
- ✦ Do you know what excess is applicable? Is the excess the same for all insured events?
- ✦ Can you speak to a person if you need to make a claim, or do you have to communicate over emails?
