Protect Your Australian Adventures with Domestic Travel Insurance

We may feel safe traveling at home, but even local getaways come with unexpected surprises. Travel insurance helps keep things on track when plans go off-course.

Whilst travel insurance does not cover medical costs in Australia, can you afford to replace a lost phone or pay for rental vehicle excess if something goes wrong?

Relax and enjoy your next Australian holiday, worry-free, with the protection of your PassportCard domestic travel policy.

This is where PassportCard domestic travel insurance comes into play.

- ✓ If your luggage is delayed, we can add up to $250 to your PassportCard to buy essential items
- ✓ If your trip must be cancelled or is delayed due to unforeseen events
- ✓ If your luggage is lost or stolen while on holiday
- ✓ If you are going on a cruise, you will need some medical cover as the doctors on board may not be Medicare registered
- ✓ If you become sick or ill either before you go or while you are away, it disrupts your travel plans.
- ✓ If you hire a car and it gets damaged or stolen while in your care, insurance could cover the excess you have to pay
- ✓ If you are travelling for a wedding or a funeral and your journey is cancelled or delayed, meaning you wouldn't get there in time
- ✓ If your flight is cancelled due to natural disasters like a flood or bushfire
- ✓ If you have a pre-existing medical condition that could stop you from travelling
- ✓ If you become legally liable to pay compensation for injuring someone or damaging their property

PassportCard domestic travel insurance gives you peace of mind, knowing that if the unexpected happens, you won't be facing it alone.
